

September 15, 2014 - 15:00-18.30
Room 2040 (2° Floor-TeSAF Department)

Workshop
Fluvial Form and Large Wood in Southern Rivers

Programme

- 15.00-15.45- Large wood volume and mobility in mountain rivers, Chile; Prof. Andrés IROUME', Austral University, Valdivia, Chile
- 15.45-16.30- Effects of the Chaitén volcanic eruption (Chile) on river systems; Héctor ULLOA, Austral University, Valdivia, Chile
- 16.30-17.00- Coffee Break
- 17.00-17.45- River bank scallops: How forested river banks retreat by fluvial scour (King River, Australia); Fabio DELAI, TeSAF-University of Padova, Italy
- 17.45-18.30- Assessment of Large wood recruitment and budget of river reaches; Alessia TONON, TeSAF-University of Padova, Italy

Organization and Scientific Coordination: Prof. Mario Aristide LENZI
PhD School Land, Environment, Resources & Health
Research line: Water Resources & Catchment Management-27° and 28° Edition